

RESPECT CAMPAIGN! Join the Movement

Campus Climate Town Hall Monday, March 3, 2025 @ 12:45 – 2:00 PM in the Shaw Center

All students, staff, and faculty are invited to share their thoughts on the UHart campus climate. What is going well? What areas could we do better as a community regarding campus climate and your sense of belonging at UHart? This event is co-sponsored by The Campus Climate Education Response Team (CCERT). CCERT will work with community stakeholders to use the feedback from this community conversation to strengthen our campus climate.

To learn more about CCERT, including how to report a campus climate matter, or request training check out our CCERT website.

Community Signing of UHART’s Civility Statement

In our diverse campus environment and as we continue to “reimagine excellence,” respect serves as the foundation for meaningful connections, productive dialogue, and personal growth. When we treat each other with dignity and kindness, we create spaces where everyone can thrive academically, socially, and personally. Espousing the principles in the UHART Civility Statement is one of the ways we promote and practice our values.

Please visit one of these locations to sign the UHART Civility Statement

Random Acts of UHART – Pass the Kindness Initiative

Community members will be able to pick up sets of 2 Kindness Cards at a UHart Kindness Hub, write words of encouragement and acknowledgment to another member of the UHart community (any student, faculty, or staff) on one card, then “Pass the Kindness” by giving both cards – the one that they wrote and a blank one — to their intended recipient. Then the recipient has a Kindness Card that they can in turn complete for someone else and Pass the Kindness too!

Random Acts of Kindness offers many ideas of ways we can be kind and respectful

Students, Faculty, and Staff are encouraged to reach out to peers, colleagues, families, friends, community with acts of kindness. Where possible, share on social media - #UHartRESPECT. Let us spread positive and kind energy in our UHART community and beyond!
